Directors of the Barrhill Community Interest Company met twice in May to consider applications and fund governance matters.

It was confirmed to the board that Alex Callf has resigned from the board. The board recognised Alex's contributions over his time on the board and wishes him well for his move abroad.

Directors allocated funds to Barrhill Development Trust to enable playpark repairs to take place, following the recent vandalism at the park.

Directors also considered issues related to fund management, including financial monitoring.

Directors also discussed the upcoming AGM. At the AGM, directors will update members on their meetings with potential investment managers. BCIC wishes to manage the funds it holds as effectively as possible. However, it was noted that funds may be required for the "Net Zero Village" project which is still at an early stage of development.
